

Insolvency practitioners and official liquidators

As per the DIFC Insolvency Law, DIFC Law No. 1 of 2019, no person may be appointed as or serve as a Nominee, Administrator, Receiver, an Administrative Receiver, a Liquidator or provisional Liquidator of an entity unless he is registered as an insolvency practitioner with the DIFC Registrar of Companies.

Register as an insolvency practitioner

To register as an insolvency practitioner with the DIFC Registrar of Companies, please email roc.helpdesk@difc.ae

Requirements:

Curriculum Vitae of the practitioner

Credentials and qualifications of the practitioner

List of liquidation transactions conducted by the practitioner

References or testimonies from past experiences

Certificate or extract from previous appointments as insolvency practitioner by the court.

Upon receiving and reviewing the documents, an interview will be scheduled with the DIFC Registrar of Companies.

If you are already listed as a registered insolvency practitioner and would like to update your details, please email roc.helpdesk@difc.ae The request must be made by an authorised person representing the Insolvency Practitioner.
