Objectives of the DIFC

Article (4)

The DIFC has the following objectives:

1. to promote the position of the Emirate as a leading international financial centre based on the principles of efficiency, transparency, and integrity;

2. to participate in the realisation of the vision of the Emirate towards sustainable economic growth.
3. to develop and diversify the Emirate's economy through effective contribution to Financial Services and related activities;
4. to increase the contribution of the Financial Services sector and related activities in the gross domestic product of the Emirate;
5. to attract and promote investments into the Emirate; and to encourage local, regional, and international financial institutions and companies to establish themselves in the DIFC as a principal place of their business and development of their investments; and
6. to promote the Emirate as an international centre for dispute resolution and settlement.

Appointment and Functions of the President

Article (5)

- a. The DIFC shall have a President appointed pursuant to a decree issued by the Ruler.
- b. The President is responsible for the general supervision of the DIFC and the DIFC Bodies; for coordination amongst them for achievement of each of their respective strategies, policies, and objectives; and for ensuring cooperation among them and maintaining their independence.
- c. In addition to his powers as stipulated in the DIFC Laws and the DIFC Regulations, the President shall have the duties and powers to:
  1. approve, and supervise the implementation of, the policies, strategies, and plans of the DIFC Bodies, without prejudice to their independence as required under this Law;
  2. approve the annual budgets of the DIFC Bodies before submitting them to the competent authorities in the Emirate for approval pursuant to the aforesaid Law No. (1) of 2016;
  3. approve the final accounts of the DIFC Bodies;
  4. issue DIFC Regulations in accordance with his own powers;
  5. approve draft DIFC Laws before submitting them to the Ruler for final approval and enactment;

6. recommend to the Ruler the appointment, removal, and replacement of members of the Higher Board other than those appointed on a permanent basis by virtue of their positions;
  7. appoint, remove, and replace the chairmen and members of the boards of directors of the DIFCA and the DFSA, and specify the terms of their service and their respective remuneration, in accordance with the provisions of this Law;
  8. recommend to the Ruler the appointment of the Chief Justice of the DIFC Courts;
  9. recommend to the Ruler the appointment of the Governor;
  10. appoint and remove the Director of the DIFC Courts and specify the terms of his service pursuant to the DIFC Laws, subject to consultation with the Chief Justice of the DIFC Courts;
  11. establish any bodies, establishments, offices, registries, tribunals, committees, boards, and other entities required for achieving the objectives of the DIFC; specify their powers and duties; and cancel, merge, and restructure any of them where the public interest so requires;
  12. form advisory committees that will provide support and advice to the DIFC and assist the DIFC Bodies in achieving their objectives; and specify the duties of such committees, the procedures for holding their meetings; the mechanism of their operation, and the remuneration of their members;
  13. perform any action he considers necessary to ensure the proper management of the DIFC; and
  14. exercise any other duties or powers as may be required for the achievement of the objectives of the DIFC, or as may be delegated to him by the Ruler or vested in him by the DIFC Laws and the DIFC Regulations.
- d. With the exception of the powers under clauses (5), (6), (7), (8), and (9) of paragraph c of this Article, the President may delegate to the Governor any of the powers vested in him by this Law, the DIFC Laws, or the DIFC Regulations, provided that such delegation shall be specific and in writing, and is made without prejudice to the independence of the DIFC Bodies.

The Higher Board

Article (6)

- a. The DIFC shall have a Higher Board chaired by the President with the permanent membership of the Governor, the chairmen of the boards of directors of the DIFCA and the DFSA, and the Chief Justice of the DIFC Courts.
- b. The President may, as he deems appropriate, appoint additional members to the Higher Board. The mechanism and procedures for their appointment and removal, the tenure, and the terms of membership of those members, and any other relevant provisions, are regulated by way of a resolution of the President in this regard.
- c. The Higher Board shall, in accordance with the requirements of good governance applicable at the DIFC, have the following duties and powers to:
  1. approve the general strategy, policies, and plans of the DIFC presented by the Governor for the purpose of achieving the objectives of the DIFC;
  2. receive and follow up on the reports presented by the Governor on the implementation of the general strategy, policies, and plans approved for achieving the objectives of the DIFC;
  3. ensure effective coordination between the DIFC Bodies;
  4. approve the overall organisational structure of the DIFC proposed by the Governor;
  5. exercise any other duties or powers required for achieving the objectives of the DIFC, which are delegated to it by the Ruler or the President or vested in it pursuant to the DIFC Laws or the DIFC Regulations.
- d. The Higher Board will convene its meetings by an invitation of the President, at least twice a year and where required. The meetings shall be valid if attended by the majority of its members, provided that the President or the Governor are present at the meeting.
- e. The terms of reference of the Higher Board, the procedures for holding and managing its meetings, the method of passing its resolutions and recommendations, the terms of membership and the remuneration of its members, and any other relevant provisions shall be regulated by a resolution issued by the President in this respect.

- f. The President may, pursuant to a resolution he issues in this respect, form an advisory board to the Higher Board to assist the Higher Board in performing their duties. This resolution shall determine the functions of the advisory board, its terms of reference, the procedures for holding its meetings, the method of passing its recommendations and decisions, and the remuneration of its members.
- g. For the purpose of performing its functions, the Higher Board may invite any person it deems appropriate to attend its meetings without having the right to vote and may seek the opinion of any authority or person with efficiency, expertise, and specialisation.

The Governor

Article (7)

- a. The Governor is appointed and removed by a decree issued by the Ruler upon recommendation of the President.
- b. The President shall specify the terms of service, compensation, and employment entitlements of the Governor.
- c. Without prejudice to the independence of the DIFC Bodies and their functions as provided for in this Law, the DIFC Laws, and the DIFC Regulations, the Governor shall have the following duties and powers to:
  - 1. prepare the general strategy, policies, and plans of the DIFC towards achieving the objectives of the DIFC, and to submit the same to the Higher Board for approval, to supervise their implementation upon approval, and to submit the relevant reports to the Higher Board;
  - 2. propose the overall organisational structure of the DIFC and submit the same to the Higher Board for approval;
  - 3. form committees and working groups for providing the required consultation and assistance to enable him to perform his functions pursuant to this Law, the DIFC Laws, and the DIFC Regulations;
  - 4. appoint, at his own discretion, experts and specialists, on the conditions he deems appropriate, to provide support and advice;

5. conclude, in consultation with the DIFC Bodies where necessary, contracts, agreements, and memoranda of understanding with third parties inside and outside of the State as may be required for achieving the objectives of the DIFC;
  6. represent the DIFC in its dealings with the competent federal and local authorities, and any other party inside and outside of the State; and involve the DIFC Bodies in such dealings in a manner consistent with their functions and responsibilities;
  7. perform any other duties or powers assigned or delegated to him by the Ruler or the President, or vested in him pursuant to the DIFC Laws and the DIFC Regulations.
- d. The Governor may not occupy simultaneously with his position as Governor any other position, and shall not conduct any activity which may conflict with the DIFC general strategy, policies and plans, and objectives provided that this restriction shall not include performance of the duties relating to any other position or post to which he is assigned by the Ruler or the President.
